COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL
UNIVERSITY OF INDIANAPOLIS

Any student dropping all courses and withdrawing from the University must have the following checklist completed to ensure official withdrawal. Failure to have the checklist completed could result in being declared ineligible to return to the University or to transfer to another college or university. Students may withdraw up to and including the Friday of the 10th week of classes for semester I and II. Students may withdraw up to and including the Monday of the second week of Spring Term. Withdrawal deadlines for Summer Session vary due to the length of the enrolled course; please consult the academic calendar online for more information. No withdrawal will be permitted after these deadlines and students will receive a final grade for their course(s).
